Elba High sends four FCCLA students to state competition; all win gold to advance

by Linda Hodge, Editor

Elba High School FCCLA (Family, Career and Community Leaders of America) members participated Thursday, March 10, in the Students Taking Action with Recognition (STAR) Events competition in Montgomery, Ala.

The Career Technical Service Organization had four members, Zalie McKelvy, Keelie Moseley, Adalyn O'Neal, and Destinee Tidwell, who competed in the categories: Job Interview and Repurpose and Redesign. All four students received gold medals and a berth to the National STAR Events Competition in San Diego, California in June.

Over 400 students from Alabama competed in 32 competitive events last week in Montgomery.

"Competitions such as these help to prepare students for a lifetime of success," said Elba's FCCLA advisor, Christina Morgan. "I am very proud of my students - winning Star Event competitions is one more way they are able to demonstrate they are college and career ready!"

McKelvey competed in Level 2 Job Interview, and she said this was a competition where she could choose a job to apply for while in high school and then show the steps to take to get that job. She also said the interview included her describing how she would be the most qualified to receive the job.

"I was kind of nervous to do it because I had never competed in this category before, and it was completely new to me," McKelvy said. "But, when I received the first place overall award, it was very rewarding."

O'Neal and Tidwell competed as a team in the Repurpose and Redesign Level 2 category, and they too received first place in their competition. Both said it was very special to learn they had won first place out of 14 teams that competed in their category.

"We made quilted hugs for people in the nursing home," O'Neal said. "We made them for my granny, and that was very special to me. One of the hugs had 'granny' embroidered on the top of it, and that was special."

O'Neal and Tidwell quilted the hugs together using embroidery and sewing machines at the high school.

"I was definitely glad we had the opportunity to compete in this category," Tidwell said.

Former Elba Tiger Alex Wright donates math books to Elba Elementary School

Students at Elba Elementary School had a treat Thursday, March 10, when Alex Wright, graduate of Elba High School and UAB linebacker, started his Impact for Change Tour.

Wright addressed the Elba students at an assembly to talk about education and adversity. As part of the event, he donated math workbooks to the students.

The workbooks focus on various math concepts at different grade levels.

Wright attended Elba Elementary and Elba High School. He went on to play college football at the University of Alabama at Birmingham.

As a junior at UAB, Wright was Second Team All-Conference USA and the PFF C-USA Defensive Player of the Year.

He finished the season with 46 tackles, three sacks, seven and a half tackles for loss, three pass breakups, 12 quarterback hits and two forced fumbles.

Wright will enter the 2022 NFL Draft in April.

Elba City Council approves several board appointments during meeting

The Elba City Council made some board appointments during its regular bi-monthly meeting held Monday evening, March 14, at Elba City Hall.

Two appointments for the Zoning Board of Adjustments were approved by the council.

Mark Kelley was appointed to replace Chelsea Cooper in the District 3 spot on the board. Mayor Tom Maddox said Cooper's current employer does not allow for her to serve on such boards; therefore she had resigned her spot.

Robbie Curran was reappointed to serve another term as a supernumerary on the Zoning Board of Adjustments.

The Industrial Development Board had all nine spots up for reappointment or appointment. Eight of the nine were reappointments approved by the council.

Monday night.

Re-appointed for four-year terms [expiring in March 2026] were Daniel Stephens, chairman; Barry Giles, secretary; and Neil Grantham. Re-appointed to six-year terms were Eddie Kelley, and Van McCall. Re-appointed to two-year terms were Carrie Whitworth, John Holley, and Jake Cowen.

New to this board will be Carlos Magwood. He was appointed Monday night to a six-year term on the board. He will fill a spot vacated by former board member Ronnie Young.

Also, Mayor Maddox announced there had been some interest from a business in purchasing the Wells Fargo building. The mayor said he could not reveal any further details, but he said this could be potentially good news to come after Wells Fargo closes in May.

"Gratitude can transform common days into thanksgivings, turn routine jobs into joy, and change ordinary opportunities into blessings." – William Arthur Ward

New postal regulations from U.S. Congress does not address the ongoing slowdown in mail delivery. The new regulations were welcomed by postal folks because they relieved the postal service of millions of financial obligations and put that directly on the government. It also required postal workers to sign up for Medicare when eligible (also relieving the PO from paying their medical insurance forever). Studies show a gradual slowdown in mail delivery since the 1970's. Recent guidelines from the Postmaster General openly state that mail delivery will get even slower.

The ongoing mess in the Ukraine is heartening on one level but horrible and typical war on the flip side. Ukraine fighters are apparently putting up a very stiff resistance to the much larger Russian assaults, but at a heavy cost in human life and property. Pictures showing the damage and death in the battle zones present a sobering reality to those of us who are only worrying about the upward spiral of the price of gasoline. Of course as with most wars, the leader of the attackers still sits in his plush office, wearing a suit and tie, with little visible concern for the deaths and misery being inflicted on the innocent Ukraine citizens and his own Russian soldiers.

License free concealed gun carry is now official in Alabama. The legislature passed the bill and the governor quickly signed the documents. We are not concerned about the dollars lost by the agencies who issued the licenses, but about the potential lives lost from the nuts law enforcement know are carrying a pistol in their belt but can do nothing but wait for them to shoot someone before legally taking any action against this nut or hot head.

COVID variant "BA.2" has been reported all around the world in recent weeks and now is in the U.S. We have seen very little about this particular strain of the bug, but experts are hoping the number of people who have actually had COVID and the number of those with the full vaccinations will couple together and put a damper on the spread of this 'new kid on the block.' We received a news release from a politician this week who likened COVID to "the flu", so we assume he is preaching that "the government is out to get you" – or something. We replied to that person something like, 'If he had seen all the funerals and very sick folks we have seen as the result of COVID, he wouldn't get close to such a statement.'

The Pea River bridge has been repaired... maybe. Paving crews were back on the job a couple of weeks ago and did some extra work on the expansion joints. Hopefully the 'stuff' they packed the joints with will work, but we are not convinced. Those joints are necessary for expansion as temperatures change but appear to this 'non-bridge engineer' to be larger than they were in past years. That could only be true if there is shifting in the bridge foundations – something that sounds frightening and something that if true, will only get worse and lead to – well lots and lots of impossible expense on Elba's part.

Be safe, wear your mask when appropriate, social distance, wash your hands AND get the shot(s) and/or booster!

Editor's Note: Cuzin Lou Lou's tales are to be enjoyed as a light-hearted form of Southern expression Kindness...It is a word that Cuzin Lou Lou has been thinking a lot about recently. While Lou Lou loves to aggravate those closest to her, and poke fun in her 'Tales from Yonder' there are some things more important and being kind to one another is one of those things.

Often after the Sunday morning church service, Lou Lou will venture to a favorite local restaurant with friends to eat lunch. This past Sunday was not different...well, it was a little different. Earlier in the day, Lou Lou and friends had learned of the untimely, way-too-soon death of a person that came into their lives five or so years ago.

Upon arriving at lunch, Lou Lou had the opportunity to tell the waitress without anyone else [except Sister] hearing for the waitress to put it all on one check this time. As everyone finished eating, Lou Lou managed to get to the waitress before anyone thought about the bill, and she paid for lunch. Lou Lou returned to the table and announced that lunch was taken care of for the day. She did not do this for accolades or any attention. She did this to spread a bit of kindness to her friends on a day that started out very sad for them.

After everyone left the restaurant, Lou Lou made another quick stop to pick something up for Papa, and this is when she really got reminded the importance of kindness for us all. Upon reaching the checkout counter, Lou Lou was given her total. As she placed her form of payment into the machine, a total stranger at the checkout next to her tried to call out to the cashier in time to stop Lou Lou from paying... This total stranger wanted to pay for the items Lou Lou was purchasing!

Unfortunately, Lou Lou's payment processed before the kind person was able to complete her task, but it was the thought that counted. The stranger explained to Lou Lou and the cashiers that she had been trying to pay for others "things" more lately. She said people were always paying for her meals, etc., and she wanted to return that kindness to others.

That really hit home with Cuzin Lou Lou, and she thanked the lady for her sweet gesture, even though it didn't work out this time.

All week long, Lou Lou has thought of that kind stranger, and she has determined kindness does still exist in others. We've just got to make way for it to be shown.

Lou Lou hopes she can do a better job of that herself! Until next time...God Bless and Keep Smiling!

What is a Mausoleum?

There are a number of alternatives to traditional burial in the ground. One common option is to be placed in a mausoleum. A mausoleum is a building specially designed to house the dead; it may be constructed specifically for a single person, or it may be intended to house the remains of multiple people.

This isn't a new concept, and in fact, mausoleums have been in use around the world for thousands of years. Today, many cemeteries offer access to mausoleums, and you might also consider having a mausoleum built as a place for your immediate family to all eventually be entombed together.

Bodies in a mausoleum are entombed in a defined space known as the crypt. There are a few benefits to this, and the most obvious is simply that entombment in a crypt is cleaner and dryer than burial in the ground. Because mausoleums are buildings, they provide an enclosed space for visitors to come and pay their respects year-round. And, mausoleums typically use less land space than traditional burial plots do, making them a surprisingly eco-friendly option.

Finally, mausoleums offer a defined space that can be reserved for a couple or for an entire family—making it one of the best ways to ensure you and your loved ones ultimately share the same final resting place and it's easy for future generations to come pay their respects.

If entombment in a mausoleum is something you'd like to consider, the best way to proceed is simply to reach out to your local funeral director to learn more about the options available to you.

fun watching the students as they prepare for these competitions because she gets to see those 'light bulb' moments when things start coming together. She said watching the students grow as they are going through the process is fun for her.

"The competitions definitely have helped us with our communication skills," O'Neal said.

McKelvy added, "It has improved my confidence and bettered my verbal communications."

The youngest of the four Elba competitors was Keelie Moseley, and she competed in Repurpose and Redesign Level One. She made Hug Bugs for her project.

Moseley said Hug Bugs are little stuffed animals that notes can be placed in their wings and then given to people. She said she gave Hug Bugs to her family and friends, sister queens, and residents in the nursing home too.

Moseley was the second place qualifier in her category, and all first and second place winners advance to the national level.

"All the students that compete are winners because they learn new skills," Morgan said. "I truly believe these competitions help prepare them for a lifetime of success."

The four Elba students now advance to Nationals in San Diego, Calif. to compete with other FCCLA members from across the United States.

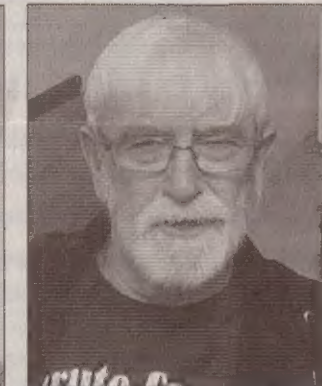

Morgan said the trip will cost approximately $1,800 for each student, which means fundraising will begin. Anyone willing to make a contribution to FCCLA is asked to contact Christina Morgan at Elba High School.

Of course, the young ladies are hoping the trip to California is not all business as they all four already have their hearts set on a visit to the San Diego Zoo while there.

REDEEMING OUR VISION OF GOD - PART 1

"But as for me, my feet were almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped." (Psalms 73:2)

These words were penned by a lesser-known Bible character by the name of Asaph. Asaph was what we would think of as a choir director for the temple during the days of David. According to 1 Chronicles 25:1-2, he was one who "prophesied according to the order of the king" through music. He was a singer of spiritual songs, but he was also a spiritual man. Asaph believed that what he wrote and sung about God was true. So, when he wrote in verse 1 of Psalm 73, "truly God is good to Israel, even to such as are of a clean heart," he believed it to be absolute truth, a vital truth...God is good. Those are much more than mere words. Our belief in the goodness of God is a foundational truth for our faith.

But Psalm 73 gives us an intimate look into a time when Asaph's faith was in trouble. In fact, he writes in verse 2, "But as for me, my feet were almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped. (3) For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked." He knew God was good, and just, and holy; but he didn't understand how a good and just God could allow the wicked to prosper, while he himself was "all the day long plagued, and chastened every morning." Asaph was being tempted to declare "Divine injustice." He could never deny that God was good to His people; but it also seemed as if God was good, perhaps too good, to those who made no attempt to live righteously. Rock bottom for Asaph was the statement in verse 13:

"Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocence."

The key to understanding Asaph's struggle is seen in verse 3, "For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked." Asaph took his eyes off The Lord! He didn't set-out to slip-up, but steady faith requires a consistent heavenward gaze. When we allow our focus to be drawn away from the eternal things of God to the ever-shifting things of this world, it is only a matter of time before we slip and fall.

Distractions come in all shapes and sizes. For Asaph it was a misunderstanding of God's goodness; for others it's the unexplainable suffering in the world. In our modern 24-hour news cycle it's easy to find something to draw our attention away from the stability of our faith.

But Asaph's "faith-crisis" puts him in the good company of some of God's greatest saints. Even John the Baptist needed reassurance while he awaited execution in prison for preaching truth (Matthew 11).

Next week we will look at how Asaph recovered from his near slip. The remedy may surprise you for its simplicity.

Better at Doing or Telling?

I entered seminary as a young man. At a retreat for incoming students, we had opportunity to get acquainted with our professors outside of the formal classroom setting. A feature speaker was a leader widely known in Christian circles for his devotional life. It seemed we were in for a treat.

The "treat" turned into a "treatment"; the speaker described in great detail how he arose early every morning to pray for four hours - detailing everything he thought the Lord needed to know. Not once did he mention listening to what God might be trying to tell him.

Military Support Group Meetings:

Enterprise Military Support Group meets on Tuesdays at 7 p.m. Anyone who needs to talk about difficult experiences and needs an understanding friend is invited. Meetings at Church on Boll Weevil Circle, 2017 Boll Weevil Circle, Enterprise, Ala.

I admit that my prayer life is less disciplined, and possibly even less effective, than that of our speaker, and yet, something about the whole experience seemed to be a bit off in light of Jesus' admonishment about making a public display. Are you better at doing or telling? - C.R.B.

SPORTS NEWS

Views From

The Pressbox

By Ricky Mularz, Sports Editor

Our grandson Lawson was beaming with pride last week when he told me 'Team Tech' had completed the construction of its robot and was ready to advance to the next step, which will be to put the machine in action. Maybe if I can find the parts he can build me a self-propelled lawn mower that will save his 'ole Granddaddy some hours in the sun.

For what it is worth....

*** It wasn't the best of weeks for the Elba Tigers and Lady Tigers as both the varsity and junior varsity teams for both groups suffered a winless week. On the baseball field, the Tigers saw their recent losing streak continue with a pair of lopsided losses to Kinston and Arton, while the JV also lost to Kinston in their return to the field after a short break. The Tigers have way too much talent to be a losing team, and I have no doubt they will wake up one day soon and start piling up the wins! Over on the softball field, the Lady Tigers outthit Arton 4-3 in a ten-run loss due to a dozen free trips on the bases by walks. The girls have one of the area's top young pitchers and I know as she gains experience and more control of her pitches she and the Lady Tigers will be just fine.

*** The biggest news on the area high school baseball scene has been the play of the teams from Zion Chapel and the pitching of New Brockton ace Drew Cashion. The Rebels have built a winning program and have quietly taken the area by storm as the varsity team has raced out to a 7-1 record and the freshman team has run off 14 straight wins. Zion Chapel struggled last season, but has bounced back strong and has apparently built a program that is built for the long haul. It is good to see the Rebels back winning and having so many players involved in the process. You can bet the folks up at ZC are excited, and have a reason to be! Over at New Brockton the Gamecocks are headed for another winning season, and one of the reasons why has been the play of Drew Cashion. The senior right-handed pitcher tossed an early-season no-hitter against Elba with 20 strikeouts and last week tossed a one-hitter with 18 strikeouts in a shutout win over Geneva County. So far this season Cashion has pitched 22 and one-third innings, has a 0.00 earned run average, has allowed only four hits and has struck out 64 opposing batters. There is no doubt the Gamecocks have a stopper on the mound!

*** Well, it looks like all the baseball fans across the nation will get to enjoy a full season after all since the owners announced last week they had agreed to a new five-year contract with the players. It was announced all the teams would play a 162-game schedule and that the season would begin in four weeks. The four weeks will be filled with news since over 200 free agents are still unsigned, including Atlanta's Freddie Freeman, and teams will be looking to fill their rosters. A couple of things included in the new contract include a minimum wage of $700,000 a season that will go up to $780,000 in 2026; a new salary cap of $230 million per team; a 12-team post-season playoff with the top two division winners getting a first round bye; the use of a designated hitter in both leagues; a six-team draft lottery to take the place of the team with the worst record picking first in the draft; and the addition of advertising that will allow patches on jerseys and decals on helmets. Yep, baseball is back, even if it will look a little different.

*** Alabama and Auburn will both be in the NCAA tournament and have the talent to make a run in the 68-team event, but both left their fans mighty unhappy last week after being eliminated in the opening round of the SEC tournament. The Crimson Tide blew a 15-point lead and will be no doubt limping into post-season play, while the Tigers played their worst half of the season and saw a late rally fall short. I hope the two teams win a bunch of games in the tournament and meet for a third time somewhere down the line, but while Auburn may make a run, I see the Tide running back to Tuscaloosa.

*** In closing.... Zion Chapel hired a new football coach last week that said all the right things about the school, the program and the community, and while many in the area believe the new head man is heading into a 'no win' situation, I feel he is arriving at just the right time. All the boys sports programs at the school, except football, have developed a winning attitude and I can't help but believe that winning spirit will carry over to the football field. There are times the Rebels are simply outmanned in football, but they always play hard for all four quarters, and that spirit and pride is just what it takes to build a winning program. The folks at Zion Chapel will no doubt support the new coach, and need to give him time to get his program established. Before long everyone may be surprised except the Rebels players and coaches as the wins start coming at a rapid pace.

The Elba Tigers made the short trip down to Kinston last week and dropped two games to the Kinston Bulldogs as the varsity lost 8-3 and the junior varsity dropped an 11-3 decision.

Following is a recap of both games:

(Varsity)

The Elba Tigers were tied at 1-1 heading into the bottom of the fifth inning, only to see Kinston come to life at the plate late in the game as the Bulldogs rallied to pull away and claimed an 8-3 win.

Kinston had an early scoring threat in the bottom of the first inning when the Bulldogs used a hit batter and two walks to load the bases with no outs. However, Elba's Carson Wise came in from the outfield to take over on the mound and recorded two strikeouts a weak grounder to first base as the Tigers escaped the early threat.

Elba stranded two runners on base in the top of the third on a pair of walks, but broke through in the fourth and plated a run to grab a 1-0 lead. Paxton Wise reached on an error to start the Tigers rally, stole second and went to third on a wild pitch, and raced home on a sacrifice fly by Ty Sieving to put Elba on the scoreboard.

Kinston answered the Elba run with a run of its own in the bottom of the frame when Cade Jones reached on a walk, went to third on an error off the bat of John Free, and scored on a fielder's choice by CJ Lunsford.

The Tigers stranded runners on second and third in the fifth, but Kinston managed to send a runner across the plate in the bottom of the inning when Jeb Crosby ripped a lead-off single, went to second when Cale Sumblin was hit by a pitch and scored on a hit by JW Mikel after an Elba error on the throw to the infield.

Elba stranded two more runners on base in the sixth, while Kinston came to life in the bottom of the inning as the Bulldogs scored six runs to take an

Elba Tigers clawed by 'Cats 16-0 in area loss

Lady Tigers swept on road

The Elba Lady Tigers opened area play last week with a disappointing 10-0

8-1 lead. Kinston loaded the bases with no outs in the inning thanks to a pair of walks and an Elba error, and the Bulldogs didn't waste the opportunity as Tripp Hawthorne came through with a clutch two-run double, JW Mikel followed with a two-run single, and the Bulldogs used an Elba error and a wild pitch to take command.

Elba was down big, but refused to throw in the towel and plated two runs in its final at-bat in a late rally. Walks to Cameron Gray and Carson Wise ignited the late Tigers rally, while a two-out walk to Whit Shehee loaded the bases. Paxton Wise followed with a two-run single to keep the rally alive. However, the Tigers saw the late comeback attempt end on a strikeout as Kinston held on to claim the 8-3 win.

Paxton Wise had 1 hit, scored 1 run and had 2 rbi's to lead Elba, while Carson Wise and Cameron Gray both scored 1 run and Ty Sieving had 1 rbi. Three Elba pitchers work six innings and allowed four earned runs on five hits, and eight walks, while recording nine strikeouts.

JW Mikel had 2 hits, scored 1 run and had 2 rbi's to lead Kinston, while Jeb Crosby added 2 hits and scored 2 runs, and Tripp Hawthorne added 1 hit, scored 1 run and had 2 rbi's. Cale Sumblin was the winning pitcher as he tossed five innings of no-hit ball with nine strikeouts.

(Junior Varsity)

The Elba Tigers saw an early 2-0 lead vanish in an 11-3 loss to the Kinston Bulldogs. Jordan Hammonds had 1 hit and scored 1 run to lead the Tigers at the plate, while Cole Shehee added 1 hit and 1 rbi, and Jay Wilson and Trace Grantham both added 1 hit. Three Elba pitchers combined to throw two and two-third innings and allowed six earned runs on four hits and nine walks, while recording for strikeouts. Colby Tew had 2 hits, scored 2 runs and had 2 rbi's to lead Kinston, three. Landon Tyler had 3 hits, including a grand-slam home run, scored 3 runs and recorded 5 rbi's to lead the Purple Cats, while Phenix Griffin added 2 hits, scored 1 run and had 2 rbi's, Hughes Hammock was the winning pitcher as he tossed a five-inning shutout on four hits and recorded three strikeouts.

The Lady Tigers out-hit Arton 4-3 in the five inning contest, but allowed 12 walks that led to numerous runs as they dropped the key area clash. Hailee Layton had 2 hits, including a double, to lead Elba at the plate, while Danaejah Flowers and Andrya Chism both added 1 hit. Ansleigh Herring and Mattie Grace Heath both had 1 hit, scored 1 run and had 1 rbi to lead the Lady Cats.

(Junior Varsity)

The Elba Lady Tigers trailed only 5-0 after two innings, but couldn't keep it close late in a 15-0 loss to the Arton Lady Cats. Mary Kelley, Makayla Moore, Sydney Siler and Keelie Moseley all reached base on walks as the Lady Tiger were the victims of a no-hitter. Lizzy Woodfaulk had 4 hits, scored 3 runs and had 3 rbi's to lead Arton, while Melissa Hudson added 3 hits, scored 2 runs and had 2 rbi's.
